

Department of Dermatology

Clinical/Academic Dermatologist

The Department of Dermatology at University Hospitals Case Medical Center and Case Western Reserve University is seeking qualified physician/clinical educators to join our faculty. We are one of the most prestigious institutions in the country.

This opportunity offers the combined advantages of a major metropolitan center, a highly collegial and well-respected faculty. Our faculty consists of some of the most prominent names in the fields of Clinical and Academic Dermatology. We also have one of the most sought after residency programs in the nation. Dedicated departmental resources and mentoring facilitate career development and practice building at our suburban sites and main campus. We offer flexible schedules and an excellent salary & benefit package. Faculty rank is open, commensurate with experience and achievement; tenure and non-tenure track options available. Instructor level candidates should show evidence of teaching, research involvement and/or professional service activities. Assistant Professor candidates (tenure and non-tenure track) should have at least one publication and/or demonstration of potential to obtain external funding within 3 years of appointment. For non-tenure track Associate Professor rank, candidates must demonstrate excellence in either teaching, clinical service or research and must be regionally recognized for their contributions. Non-tenure track Professors must demonstrate national recognition for their contributions. If tenure track is desired, Associate Professor candidates must demonstrate national recognition of their research program; Professors must demonstrate sustained excellence and enhanced recognition.

In Employment, as in education, Case Western Reserve University is committed to Equal Opportunity and Diversity. Women, veterans, members of underrepresented minority groups, and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply.
